Story 1: Job 38, Acts 17:16-34

Who Is God?

The Scriptures give us a picture of God throughout their pages. According to Genesis 3:8, God spent time with Adam and Eve in the garden of Eden. There they talked with Him. Later, because of sin, they were separated from that time with God. They were condemned to death as each of us is today (Gn. 3:8-24). There is hope for us because of who God is (Jn. 3:17).

In Job 37, which may have been written during the time of Abraham, Elihu pointed out the power of God. But then he said, "The Almighty -- we cannot find Him..." Perhaps God had set things in motion and then removed Himself from His creation.

However, beginning with Job 38, God spoke directly to Job. God asked Job about many wonderful things He had done. Finally, Job 42:6 says that Job repented in dust and ashes. Job said that God could do all things. No purpose of God's could be stopped.

In the Old Testament God made Himself known to many people at different times in various ways (Heb. 11:1-2). Some of the people were Abraham, Isaac, Jacob and Joseph. There were also Moses, Joshua, Samuel, David, Elijah, Isaiah, Daniel and Haggai.

The glory of the Lord filled the tabernacle in the wilderness. That is where the people worshiped God. God called the tabernacle, "the tent of meeting." The tabernacle was a picture of Christ, or God the Son, who was to come (Ex. 35-40). We will learn more about the Tabernacle in Exodus.

After some four hundred years of silence, the New Testament opens with Matthew. It begins with the genealogy of Jesus Christ. He was the son of David, the son of Abraham. Luke took the lineage back to Adam who was created by God.

John began by saying, "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God." In John 14:6 Jesus said that He was the way, the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father but through Him. Jesus said that those who had seen Him had seen the Father (Jn. 14:19). In John 14:16 Jesus said the Father would give another Helper who is the Holy Spirit (Jn. 14:26). The Father, Son and Holy Spirit are one. They were all present at creation (Gn. 1:2, 26, Jn. 1:1-3).

In Acts 17 Paul pointed out the altar the people had made to the unknown God. Paul said the unknown God was the Creator of the world and everything in it. God gives life. From one man God gave life to every nation. God sovereignly determined the times and boundaries of the nations. He said God's divine nature is far above what our minds can think or describe.

However, God is loving and merciful. He gives us what we do not deserve. He was willing to overlook the times man had ignored Him. God calls man to repent because a day of righteous judgment has been set through His Son whom He raised from the dead. Some people rejected what Paul said. Some wanted to hear more, and some joined him in belief. The New Testament ends by pointing us toward an eternity with or without God.

Not only the Scriptures, but also all that God has made clearly shows and helps us understand about God's eternal power and His divine nature (Rm. 1:18-21). No one has an excuse not to know God, who wants us to love and worship Him. Paul says that when we do not honor God or give thanks to Him, we are in danger of becoming fools and of being led into sin. We are worshiping the creature rather than the Creator.

Who is God? When Moses asked that question in Exodus 3:13, God replied by saying, "I AM THAT I AM." He made us, and He wants us to come to Him. He is far more than we can understand.
