DAILY STUDY

Lesson 11: The Fall - Sin and Separation

Passage: Read Genesis 3 Verse: Genesis 3:6, 23

DAY 1 LET'S BEGIN:

1. Suppose you could eat anything any time you wanted to. Then suppose there was one item you were forbidden to eat. What would you do to resist eating that one thing?

2. What would cause you to give in and eat a forbidden item? Circle the things that might apply to you from time to time:
   a. Its appearance
   b. Someone suggests that you eat it
   c. Thinking that no one will notice
   d. Making your own decisions
   e. Ignoring the consequences
   f. Other _____

3. Read Genesis 3 and make a list of 10-20 events which are in this chapter.

DAY 2 FIND the FACTS:

1. Divide the list you made for Day 1 into 3 - 6 sections.

2. Give each section a few words to describe what is in the section.

DAY 3 VERSE ANALYSIS: Please fill in the missing words.

Genesis 3:6
... the woman saw ... she _____ ... she _____ and she gave also to her husband with her, and he _____.
Genesis 3:23 ... God _____ _____ _____ from the garden of Eden ...

1. What do these verses say to you? (Gn. 3:6, 23)

2. What did Adam and Eve do after they sinned? (3:6, 23)

3. Did they get away with what they had done? Explain.

4. What covering did Adam and Eve provide for themselves? (3:7, 21)

5. What covering did God provide, and what happened to the animal for God to provide that covering? (3:21)

6. What were some of the consequences?

7. How do you seem to get away with what you do wrong?

8. What does Romans 8:19-23 say about the results of the fall?

9. What does Romans 8:35-39 say about separation from God?

10. What does Isaiah 43:25 tell us about why God wipes out sin?

DAY 4 THINK it THROUGH:

1. In Genesis 3:1-7 Eve doubted God's love for her. She thought she could sin and get away with it, and she had a personal desire to be wise and powerful like God. Below is a list of two different progressions. Use a dictionary and describe what a progression is.

2. Circle the progression below which you would rather live with.

1. Consequences of sin were:

A. Awful guilt
B. Borrowing a covering
C. Concealing or hiding
D. Dreading consequences/being fearful
E. Examining or blaming others

2. Restoration from sin was:

A. Accepting responsibility
B. Being trustful
C. Coming to God's presence
D. Discovering Christ's covering
E. Experiencing peace instead of guilt

3. What is sin? (Rm. 3:20-23; 5:12; 1 Jn. 3:4: 2 Cor. 5:21)

4. What does it mean to obey? (Gn. 1:16-17:3)

5. Who are we required to obey? (Dt. 27:10; Eph. 6:1; Heb. 13:17; Acts 5:29)

6. Why does God require our obedience? (Ps.. 111:3; Jn. 14:21)

7. Who wants the best for us? (Ps. 139)

8. Who knows what is best for us? (Ps. 139)

DAY 5 GLEAN from GENESIS: Answer questions below.

1. Describe a time when you have felt the consequences of sin. (Ps. 32:3-4)
2. Read Psalm 32, and describe a time when you have experienced restoration from sin. (Ps. 32:1, 5)

Lesson 11: The Fall - Sin and Separation

Adam and Eve could eat from any tree in the garden of Eden except for one. They could not eat from the tree in the middle of the garden. One day Eve was near that tree when the serpent asked her about eating from it. He told her she would be like God, knowing good and evil.

Instead of getting away from trouble, Eve saw, she took and she ate from the tree and so did Adam, her husband. Then they felt guilty and were afraid to meet God, but God called to them where they had hidden themselves.

God talked to them about what they had done. He was sad they had disobeyed His words. Now they had to pay the price of being separated from the garden and His fellowship. God clothed Adam and Eve with garments of animal skin. God told the serpent that it would go on its belly. It would be more cursed than any other animal.

God made a promise that some day the woman's seed would bruise the serpent on the head, and he would bruise the woman's seed on the heel. Later we will learn how Jesus died on a cross. He lived again victorious over sin and death as He fulfilled this promise.

God told Eve that she would have pain when her children were born. Her desire would be for her husband, and her husband would rule over her. God told Adam that the ground would be cursed with thorns and thistles. He would have to work hard for his food.

Then God put them out of the garden of Eden. He put the cherubim and the flaming sword, which turned every direction, by its entrance. They would not be able to enter it again and eat from the tree of life. Some day they would return to the ground. That was a sad day for all of us.

QUESTIONS: What did the woman and the man do?
Did the woman obey God? Did the man obey God?
What did God do?
How did God provide a way for escape?

Lesson 11

The Fall - Sin and Separation

Can you imagine all the pleasant conditions Adam and Eve enjoyed. There were lovely trees with delicious fruit, rivers of pure water, beauty and order everywhere, an ideal climate and atmosphere, precious stones and gold, no fear, no weeds or harmful conditions, no diseases, sorrow or pain, no shame, the tree of life, and so much more.

Adam and his wife had been created by a perfect, sovereign, holy God. God had said that everything was very good after He finished His creation. In fact, Adam and Eve were even created in the image of God. God could not have said that everything was very good if there was sin, decay and death. This would have been a contradiction to God's very character, rendering God imperfect, which is impossible. Adam and his wife were accustomed to meeting with God in the cool of the evening and had experienced no fear or guilt.

Eve's fall was progressive. She doubted whether God really loved her and was discontent with her circumstances. She thought she could sin and get away with it. She desired to appear wise and powerful like God. After these thoughts went through her mind she not only listened, but also looked, took, ate and gave to her husband. The consequences were sure. There was conscious guilt, and they tried to hide from God, full of fear and insecurity. Then they blamed others.

When the serpent came to Eve, she did not accept the goodness of God. She did not consult her husband or God. She did not look around her and focus on being grateful for all she had.

Adam did not say "no" to Eve. Adam could have given his life for Eve because he was perfect to that point. But he listened to Eve rather than going to God for His direction.

Sin and imperfection were found in Adam and his wife who had been created perfectly. What they did was sin, and God could have stopped it since He is sovereign over all things. God was not surprised when sin occurred even though He did not originate it. He had a plan and a purpose for it from before the foundation of the world. (Acts 2:23-24; Rm. 11:36; Heb. 6:17; 1 Pt. 1:20; Eph. 1-2).

We can see God's glory in His mercy and grace as they relate to sin. Sin does not tarnish God's character in any way. In His mercy and grace He searched out Adam and his wife when they sinned and tried to cover their sin with leaves. God provided a covering of skins for them at the cost of the lives of two lambs. Because God is holy, He cursed them individually, but He also provided a promise of hope for the future which would be through His Son Jesus, through the seed of the woman.

Sin entered the world through Adam and his wife which meant that everyone would be born as a sinner separated from God. The consequence of sin was and is death, which all are condemned to pay. However, there is hope because God sent His only Son, Jesus, to provide the covering or payment for sin through His death, burial and resurrection, so man does not need to continue to be separated from God.

Each of us must accept responsibility for our own sin, respond to God's loving call through the power of the Holy Spirit and allow Jesus, God's Son, to be the covering or payment for our sin with His robe of righteousness. Only then will we experience new life and peace from guilt.

While Adam and Eve were created good, their children and everyone since them is born a sinner in need of salvation.

Like so many today, Eve responded to Satan and a lie because she wrongly allowed it to satisfy her own desires or lusts. What lies are you holding onto so you can hold onto sin in your life?

PRAYER: Father, thank you for sending Jesus to be our Savior. Help us yield to You and be grateful and thankful in our circumstances.
