Genesis 3:6; 23

The Fall - Sin and Separation

Adam and Eve could eat from any tree in the garden of Eden except for one. They could not eat from the _____ in the middle of the garden. One day Eve was near that tree when the serpent asked her about eating from it. He told her she would be like God, knowing _____ and _____.

Instead of getting away from trouble, Eve saw, she _____ and she ate from the tree and so did Adam, her _____. Then they felt guilty. They were _____ to meet God, but God called to them where they had hidden themselves.

God talked to them about what they had done. He was sad that they had disobeyed His words. Now they had to pay the price of being separated from the garden and His fellowship. But God provided a covering of animal skin for Adam and Eve. God told the serpent that he would have to go on its _____. It would be more cursed than any other animal.

God made a promise that some day the woman's seed would bruise the serpent on the _____, and he would bruise the woman's seed on the heel. Later we will learn how Jesus died on a cross. He lived again victorious over sin and death as He fulfilled this promise.

God told Eve that she would have pain when her children were born. Her desire would be for her husband, and her husband would rule over her. God told _____ that the ground would be cursed with _____ and thistles. He would have to work hard for his food.

Then God put them out of the garden of Eden. He put the cherubim and the flaming sword, which turned every direction, by its entrance. They would not be able to enter it again and eat from the tree of _____. Some day they would return to the _____. That was a sad day for all of us.
