The Fall - Sin and Separation

... the woman saw ... took ... ate ... and she gave also unto her husband with her, and he ate.
... God sent him out of the garden of Eden.
Genesis 3:6; 23

The Fall - Sin and Separation

Adam and Eve could eat from any tree in the garden of Eden except for one. They could not eat from the tree in the middle of the garden. One day Eve was near that tree when the serpent asked her about eating from it. He told her she would be like God, knowing good and evil.

Instead of getting away from trouble, Eve saw, she took and she ate from the tree and so did Adam, her husband. Then they felt guilty and were afraid to meet God, but God called to them where they had hidden themselves.

God talked to them about what they had done. He was sad they had disobeyed His words. Now they had to pay the price of being separated from the garden and His fellowship. But God provided a covering of animal skin for Adam and Eve. God told the serpent that it would go on its belly. It would be more cursed than any other animal.

God made a promise that some day the woman's seed would bruise the serpent on the head, and he would bruise the woman's seed on the heel. Later we will learn how Jesus died on a cross. He lived again victorious over sin and death as He fulfilled this promise.

God told Eve that she would have pain when her children were born. Her desire would be for her husband, and her husband would rule over her. God told Adam that the ground would be cursed with thorns and thistles. He would have to work hard for his food.

Then God put them out of the garden of Eden. He put the cherubim and the flaming sword, which turned every direction, by its entrance. They would not be able to enter it again and eat from the tree of life. Some day they would return to the ground. That was a sad day for all of us.

QUESTIONS: What did the woman and the man do?
Did the woman obey God? Did the man obey God?
What did God do?
How did God provide a way for escape?
