Israel Approaches Mt. Sinai

Moses' second son was named Eliezer. Moses said the God of his father was his help. He had delivered him from the sword of Pharaoh. Moses had sent his wife, Zipporah, and sons, _____ and Eliezer, away earlier. His father-in-law, Jethro, brought them back when the Israelites were out of Egypt.

While Jethro was visiting Moses, he saw and heard what had happened. He believed in the LORD. He made a sacrifice to God with Aaron and the elders of Israel. Then Jethro watched Moses _____ the people from morning until evening. He said that Moses should teach the people God's statutes and laws. He should divide his duties among honest, able men who feared God. Moses did what Jethro said to do.

In the third month Israel entered the wilderness of _____. Moses went up the mountain to God. God reminded him of what He had done for them. He told him that if the people obeyed His voice and kept His covenant, they would be His possession. When Moses reported to the people, they said they would do all the LORD said.

The LORD instructed Moses to have the people consecrate themselves. They should wash their clothing and be ready for the LORD to come down to them on the third day. The Lord came down to Mount Sinai in fire and smoke with the people at the foot of the mountain. He called Moses up the mountain and told him to warn the people not to come too close. Moses told the people what God said.

The LORD gave ten _____ to the people. When the people saw and heard the thunder and lightening and the sound of the trumpet with the mountain smoking, they were afraid. They asked Moses to speak to God for them. Moses told the people not to be afraid. He went toward the thick cloud where God was.

God gave Moses rules for sacrifices and offerings and specific laws. God said that if the people obeyed, He would prepare the way before them. As we will see in Exodus 23, they would have the land from the Red Sea to the sea of the Philistines and from the wilderness to the _____ River. They would drive the people out of the land. Moses reported to the people. The people said that they would _____ all the LORD said.
