Hidden Treasure

A father writes to his son. He tells his son about receiving his sayings and treasuring his commandments. The father tells his son to listen closely to wisdom with his _____. He should lean his heart toward understanding. He should cry out for discernment and understanding.

The father said his son should _____ and _____ for wisdom as if it were silver or hidden treasures. Then he would discern the fear of the LORD. Then he would discover the knowledge of God.

It is because the LORD _____ wisdom. From God's mouth comes knowledge and understanding. God stores up sound wisdom for the upright. He is a shield to those who walk in integrity. He guards the paths of justice. He preserves the way of His godly ones.

_____ he searches, _____ he will recognize righteousness, justice, fairness and every good direction. The father said that wisdom would enter his _____. Knowledge would be pleasant to his soul. Discretion would _____ him. Understanding would watch over him. They would deliver him from the evil way and from the man who speaks perverse things. His son would be delivered from going the way of evil men who go in crooked directions.

His son would also be delivered from the strange woman who flatters with her words. He would be delivered from the one who would leave her own companion and forget the covenant of her God. Her ways are the ways of death rather than life.

When you search for wisdom diligently, you will walk in the way of a good man and keep righteous paths. The upright will live in the land along with the blameless.

However, the wicked ones will be cut off and uprooted. This was a father's warning and instruction to his son about searching diligently for wisdom.
