Lesson 44

Paul describes the resurrection in relation to the sowing and growing of a seed which had to die before it could live again in a new form. He contrasts present bodies to resurrection bodies which will be imperishable, glorious, raised in power and spiritual. Death has no victory. They are to be steadfast, immovable, always abounding the work of the Lord - our toil is not in vain in the Lord (1 Cor. 15:58).

Paul ends by turning from eternal things to practical things such as giving and serving. He includes pithy principles for living. So long as they are in the world they have the opportunity and responsibility to honor and glorify God with their beings. Paul sends heartfelt greetings from the saints and signs the letter personally. He includes a final warning and an affirmation of love.

What is your response?

The most powerful tools a woman has are the inner adorning of humility, love, moral purity, kindness, respect, and a gentle, quiet spirit (1 Pt. 3:4) in the presence of the filling of the Spirit with its evident fruit. These are precious in the sight of God. God's plan is for the perfection and fulfillment of both man and woman as He ordained them to be.

As every new corruption appears, a new philosophy arises to justify it. Man is destined to go from bad to worse. Before the fall man was given headship of the woman and over creation, free from selfishness and self-will. They lived in perfect fulfillment of their created purpose and under God's perfect provision and care. Eve's sin was in disobeying God's specific command and in acting independently of Adam. Adam not only disobeyed God's command, but he also yielded to Eve's leadership.

Eve was cursed with pain in childbirth and a distorted desire to rule over her husband. Adam was cursed with toil, difficulty, frustration in obtaining sustenance from the land, and with conflict with his wife over her submission. Both were cursed with death as the penalty for their sin (Gn. 3:16-19). Their actions and subsequent curses corrupted marriage. God's way for successful marriage is based on what husbands and wives put into it, not what they get out of it.

Genesis records a variety of attacks on the sanctity and harmony of marriage and the family which are condoned and even lauded in today's society. For marriage to be what God intends, it takes the filling of the Holy Spirit by true believers. To weaken the home is to weaken all of society.

Christ's love for the church is the example to follow. It is sacrificial, purifying, caring and unbreakable. When Christian husbands and wives yield to the power of the Spirit, they bring much honor to God. Nevertheless, the divorce rate among Christians is almost as high as the rest of society. Just like a frog in cool water is oblivious to being heated to the boiling point without noticing what is happening, families are gradually accepting lower and lower standards and are totally destroyed before they know what has happened.

While self-help books and child psychology studies and advice proliferate book shelves, Scripture remains clearly, concisely, continually and completely accurate. See Deuteronomy 6:4-7. It is God's plan that His Word be passed from one generation to the next primarily through the family.

Since the Fall the family has been bombarded with the sinful nature with which every individual is born. Along with man's sinful nature is Satan's diligent goal to undermine and destroy the family. One of the most pervasive tools is today's humanistic philosophy. Marxist socialism is still intent on liberating children from the home and making them wards of the state where they will not be taught counter productive standards and attitudes.

God's Word is timeless. No human philosophy is new or surprising to God. Scripture makes it clear that instead of children needing to be liberated from parents, they are to honor and obey parents, including attitudes and actions. The word for "right" indicates that which is correct, just and righteous. Proverbs is full of truths to guide parents in training their children and for children in learning to obey. Even though parents make mistakes, they are the child's primary God-given authority and source of training.

Children raised in Christian families are blessed with the spiritual fruit that was previously planted while it takes several generations to reverse the effects of one wicked generation of parents. Children grow the same way Jesus grew: intellectually, physically, socially and spiritually (Lk 2:51-52). Scripture exemplifies young people who were used by God: Samuel, David, King Josiah, Esther, Timothy.

Fathers should not provoke their children to wrath, but mothers are not excluded from danger here. One source of provocation would be repeated patterns of treatment that build up deep-seated anger that boils over in outward hostility. Children's wills can be guided (Scripture gives many ways of accomplishing this), but not controlled. Other dangers include favoritism, pushing achievement beyond reasonable bounds, continual discouragement, considering children to be an intrusion, conditional love, physical and verbal abuse and failing to point children to God.

Parents should train their children, which includes punishment, and put right attitudes and principles of behavior in their minds, including correction. All of this is to be "of the Lord."

Paul includes responsibilities for slaves and masters. The New Testament does not focus on reforming and restructuring human systems which is not the root cause of human problems. The wicked heart of man will corrupt the best of systems, and the righteous heart will improve the worst. Paul concentrates on spiritual issues which can take care of political, social and economic problems. Working people face economic intimidation that mirrors slavery in any system, thus including employers and employees today.

Paul calls slaves to behave properly, to recognize their position is temporary, to have the attitude of

#	Reference	Verses
40	1 Th. 2:13	And for this reason we also constantly thank God that when you received from us the word of God's message, you accepted it not as the word of men, but for what it really is, the word of God, which also performs its work in you who believe.
41	2 Th. 2:13	But we should always give thanks to God for you, brethren beloved by the Lord, because God has chosen you from the beginning for salvation through sanctification by the Spirit and faith in the truth.
42	1 Cor. 1:18	For the word of the cross is to those who are perishing foolishness, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God.
43	1 Cor. 10:13	No temptation has overtaken you but such as is common to man; and God is faithful, who will not allow you to be tempted beyond what you are able, but with the temptation will provide the way of escape also, that you may be able to endure it.
44	1 Cor. 15:58	Therefore, my beloved brethren, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that your toil is not in vain in the Lord.
45	Eph. 2:8-10	For by grace you have been saved through faith; and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God; not as a result of works, that no one should boast. For we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them.
46	Eph. 4:14-15	As a result, we are no longer to be children, tossed here and there by waves, and carried about by every wind of doctrine, by the trickery of men, by craftiness in deceitful scheming; but speaking the truth in love, we are to grow up in all aspects into Him, who is the head, even Christ.
47	Eph. 6:10-12	Finally, be strong in the Lord, and in the strength of His might. Put on the full armor of God, that you may be able to stand firm against the schemes of the devil. For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the powers, against the world forces of this darkness, against the spiritual forces of wickedness in the heavenly places .
48	Phil. 2:3-4	Do nothing from selfishness or empty conceit, but with humility of mind let each of you regard one another as more important than himself; do not merely look out for your own personal interest, but also for the interests of others.
49	Phil. 4:6-8	Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all comprehension, shall guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. Finally, brethren, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is of good repute, if there is any excellence and if anything worthy of praise, let your mind dwell on these things.
50	Col. 1:9b-12	... we have not ceased to pray for you and to ask that you may be filled with the knowledge of His will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, so that you may walk in a manner worthy of the Lord, to please Him in all respects, bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God; strengthened with all power, according to His glorious might, for the attaining of all steadfastness and patience; joyously giving thanks to the Father, who has qualified us to share in the inheritance of the saints in light.
51	Col. 3:1-3	If then you have been raised up with Christ, keep seeking the things above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your mind on the things above, not on the things that are on earth. For you have died and your life is hidden with Christ in God.
52	Phlm. 4-6	I thank my God always, making mention of you in my prayers, because I hear of your love, and of the faith which you have toward the Lord Jesus, and toward all the saints; and I pray that the fellowship of your faith may become effective through the knowledge of every good thing which is in you for Christ's sake.
