God's Covenant with David

David was the new king of all Israel. He wanted to move the ark of God from the land of Abinadab to Jerusalem. David gathered men from all of Israel, and they began to move the ark. They put the ark on a new cart and moved it down the hill toward the threshing floor.

David and all the men of Israel were celebrating with all kinds of musical instruments. While they were celebrating, the ark almost fell from the cart because of the oxen. When Uzzah reached out to steady the ark, the LORD struck him down. They were not moving the ark as God had instructed. Uzzah died there that day.

David was angry about Uzzah's death. He was afraid to move the ark any further. So David left the ark at the house of Obed-edom the Gittite for three months. Later they learned how to move it safely. They had the Levites carry it with its poles.

Then David celebrated with the children of Israel before the LORD. He danced and shouted with the trumpet blowing. As they entered the city, Michal saw King David leaping and dancing before the LORD without his outer kingly garments. She did not like what David was doing. Michal despised him in her heart. Later David explained to Michal that he was celebrating to the LORD who had chosen him to be the ruler of all Israel.

David put the ark inside the tent he had made for it. Next David offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD. David blessed the people in the name of the LORD. Then David gave all the men and women cakes of bread, dates and raisins before they went home.

The LORD gave David peace from all his enemies. David told Nathan, the prophet, that he was living in a house of cedar. He pointed out that the ark of God was dwelling in a tent of curtains. Nathan told David to do what he wanted to do because the LORD was with him.

That night God told Nathan to tell David that he was not the one to build a house for God to dwell in. God had taken David from being a shepherd of sheep and had made him the king of Israel. God had been with David and had destroyed David's enemies. God said He would make David's name great among the people. God said that David's son would build a house for God's name. David's throne would be established forever. Nathan told David everything that God said.

David went and sat before God and remembered what God had done for him with a grateful heart. David praised God for His greatness. He thanked Him for His promises.
