Parents and teachers learn to feed preschoolers with spiritual truths and guide older children in developing their own study skills. There will be exciting and challenging times each week as individuals study and grow. Families and classes can share what they have been learning from God's living Word. What can be more exciting than seeing children discover the wonders of God's truths as families and classes learn and grow together!

3.4.41A 2 Samuel 6-7 (1 Chr 13-17, Ps 89, 131, 132): God's Covenant With David

Story 3.4.41, A,B, 2 Samuel 6-7 (1 Chr 13-17, Ps 89, 131,132): God's Covenant with David

3.4.41A King David offered to move the ark of God to Jerusalem. It was put on a new cart and moved down the hill toward the threshing floor.

While the men were celebrating with lots of musical instruments, the ark almost fell from the cart because of the oxen. Uzzah reached out to steady the ark, but the LORD struck him down. They were not moving the ark as God instructed so Uzzah died that day.

David was angry about Uzzah's death and was afraid to move the ark any further. David left the ark of God at the house of Obed-edom the Gittite three months. Finally, they learned how to move it safely by having Levites carry it with its poles.

David celebrated with Israel before the LORD. He danced and shouted with the trumpet blowing. As they entered the city, Michal saw David leaping and dancing before the LORD without his outer kingly garments. Michal despised him in her heart. Later David explained to Michal that he was celebrating to the LORD who had chosen him to be the ruler of all Israel.

3.4.41B King David put the ark of God in a special tent. He offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD. David blessed the people in the name of the LORD. Then David gave all the men and women cakes of bread, dates, and raisins before they went home.

The LORD gave David peace from all his enemies. David told Nathan, the prophet, that he was living in a house of cedar while the ark of God was dwelling in a tent of curtains. Nathan told David to do what he wanted to do because the LORD was with him.

That night God told Nathan that David would not build a house for God to dwell in, but he could begin gathering supplies. God had taken David from being a shepherd of sheep to being the king of Israel. God was with David and had destroyed David's enemies. God would make David's name great among the people. God said David's son would build a house for God's name. David's throne would be established forever. Nathan told David everything God said.

David sat before God and remembered what God had done for him with a grateful heart. David praised God for His greatness and thanked Him for His promises.

Questions:

1. What did David want to do for God after he became king of Israel?
2. What sad thing happened, and why?
3. What did they do when the ark of God was moved properly?

Prayer:

Father, thank you for wanting us to come to You.

Verse: 2 Samuel 7:16

"And your house and your kingdom shall endure before Me forever; your throne shall be established forever."

The conclusion, when all has been heard, is fear God and keep His commandments, because this applies to every person. For God will bring every act to judgment, everything which is hidden, whether it is good or evil.
