Introduction

Overview

A study

This study on the attributes of God is just that, a study according to the Proverbs 2 “searching for silver” model. Prepare for a treat. According to Luke 24:13–32 two disciples said their hearts burned within them as they listened to Jesus opening up the Scriptures. That is what this study has been for us as we have moved from one aspect of God’s Person and Character to another. The term “wow” has come to mind often. May you be as thoroughly encouraged and challenged in learning and growing as we have been. Some lessons focus on longer passages with scattered cross-references, while others move throughout the Bible.

Purpose

This study is designed to help you develop a personal understanding of some of the attributes of God with a look at their application to daily life. While being fairly comprehensive, it is not exhaustive. See some of the resources below for further insights and study. Our prayer is that your heart will be directed toward the God of the universe on a daily basis more consistently.

Counselors may select particular studies that most closely relate to the needs of counselees. You may want to begin the first questions with the counselee and send them home to complete the remainder. Make assignments according to the counselee’s capacity. It may take a couple of weeks to do some of the lessons. Review the questions and cover them with the counselee as thoroughly as you consider appropriate. God’s character is inexhaustible. However, it is a valuable spiritual stretch to consider who God is through reviewing His Person and Character and an opportunity to allow your discoveries to affect your daily life.

In this book

Each study focuses on one attribute or some closely related attributes of God. (Studies are also available in CD format.) While you may be tempted to bypass the introductory lessons, they set the stage for the need to understand more of the person and character of God. Many abbreviated and lengthy volumes provide abundant answers to questions being asked here. However, this study is for you to discover scriptural answers directly from Scripture which will help you go beyond recognizing and understanding the discoveries and convictions of others to establishing your personal convictions. Included are:

- questions for personal application
 - verse cards for reviewing a verse from each lesson
 - lesson-coordinated public domain hymns
 - a glossary for looking up terms and other charts for additional help (see contents)

Usage help

- 1. Start at the Beginning: allow a year or more for these thought provoking studies.
- 2. Select Topically: select attributes helpful for overcoming specific stumbling blocks.

Outline of Lessons:

- 1–4, 40 Introductory and Our Response
- 5–17 About God
- 18 God’s Word
- 19–24 God’s Covenants and Dealings with Man
- 25–31, 33–38 Attributes of Jesus Christ and His Relationship with Man
- 32 Attributes of the Holy Spirit
- 39 Heaven

Length of Lessons: Lessons 9, 10, 15, 26, 28, 35, 37 are 6 pages, all others are 4 pages.

Making Copies: You may copy individual lessons to share with someone you are helping. Making complete copies of the book or CD for someone else is inappropriate.
